

QUALITY ENGINEER

Job Role:

To manage the introduction of new painted products for the automotive industry and maintain and continually improve customer satisfaction.

Duties to be performed:

- 1) Work closely with the production department to ensure conformity of all products to internal and customer requirements
- 2) Handle customer concerns and lead the problem-solving team to implement corrective and preventive actions
- 3) Assist in feasibility and past part problem reviews
- 4) Understand and deploy Customer Quality Requirements
- 5) Prepare documentation to support PPAP approval
- 6) Inspect and test painted parts to support the above
- 7) Assist with the change control process
- 8) Maintain high levels of housekeeping at all times
- 9) Maintain IMDS Submissions
- 10) Conduct process and control plan audits
- 11) Support health and safety with completion of risk assessments
- 12) Any other duties as and when they arise

Qualifications/Experience:

- 1) Extensive knowledge of PPAP, PFMEA and Control Plans
- 2) Extensive knowledge of problem-solving techniques such as 8D

- 3) Knowledge of painting processes is an advantage
- 4) NEBOSH/IOSH an advantage
- 5) UK Driving license is essential
- 6) Computer literate including Microsoft Excel, PowerPoint, Outlook.
- 7) Willingness to undergo relevant training as and when required.

Attributes and Skills:

- 1) Be able to work as an individual and as part of a team.
- 2) High level of flexibility as and when required, willing to travel when necessary.
- 3) Be able to show good communication internally and externally, on all levels both written and verbal.
- 4) Be able to work well on own initiative.
- 5) Must have a methodical and organised approach to work.

Hours of Work:

0830 - 1700 (Mon-Thurs)

0830 - 1500 (Fri)

Job Types: Full-time, Permanent

Salary: £36,000.00-£39,000.00 per year

Benefits:

- Company pension
- Cycle to work scheme
- Free parking

- Sick pay